Job and Leadership Training: The Mission: St. Louis Job & Leadership Training (JLT) program equips men with the skills necessary to not only secure and sustain long-term employment, but to become leaders in their families and communities. Many men entering our program are in need of basic skill development, hands-on work experience, mentoring relationships, and personal development. With that in mind, JLT was offered as an 8-week training that included financial and computer literacy classes, job skill development, character development, small group discussions, and personal mentorship. Unique from other job training programs, students had the opportunity to have a paid internship that allowed them to get workplace experience and apply the skills they learned through classes. Even more unique is our focus on building a support system for students. To build this supportive environment, each evening class started with a shared meal, allowing the men to develop a community within the session. In 2012, 100% of graduates, or 37 men, completed a paid internship, 60 individual hours of literacy skill development, 8 hours personal mentoring, and 48 hours of small group teaching—leading to 100% of graduates obtaining employment or enrolling in school.

4b (Code: ) (Expenses $ 182,887 including grants of $ 0 ) (Revenue $ )

Home Repair: The Mission: St. Louis Home Repair program provides free home repair services to low-income residents in the neighborhoods we serve, with special emphasis on senior citizens. We seek to create safe and healthy home environments, allowing residents to stay in their homes as long as possible and preserving the social fabric of the area. While St. Louis City homes are valued for their historic features, style and materials, the aging housing stock (majority built between 1890-1920) requires costly maintenance and repairs. According to a study conducted by the American Housing Survey in 2005, 18% of homes surveyed in the St. Louis metro area were found to have unsafe/unsatisfactory living conditions. 10% of homes were found to have holes in the floors while 61% of homes had open cracks, holes, broken plaster or peeling paint in their interiors. Throughout 2012, our Home Repair program completed 550 repairs, helping over 270 residents to avoid costly citations or eviction. To complete these repairs, 1,013 volunteers served on multiple workdays over the course of the year—going out into the community to not only complete repairs, but also build relationships within the neighborhood.

4c (Code: ) (Expenses $ 131,444 including grants of $ ) (Revenue $ 44,680 )

Youth Development: Mission: St. Louis Youth Development activities set and reinforce the expectation that students will transition into and graduate from high school successfully. Research shows that dropout is a process, with indicators present as early as elementary school. Mission: St. Louis addressed this by mobilizing volunteers to read with 3rd-4th graders and assist in classrooms through our Morning Reading and Adopt-A-Classroom programs. In 2012, volunteers spent over 1,260 hours reading with 206 students in the schools we serve. For students in 4th-8th grades, we offered Summer Camp and After School Program to provide more intensive services. Through these programs, we combat Summer Learning Loss and address Early Warning Indicators: academic achievement, behavior, and attendance. To increase academic achievement, we targeted literacy, as 78% of students served were reading 2+ years below grade level. Behavior was addressed through character skill-building. Attendance was addressed by increasing students' engagement in learning and knowledge of future opportunities. Through local partnerships, students participated in over 15 unique enrichment activities in 2012. In the 2012 Summer Camp, the average reading comprehension for students improved at least one full grade level. For all Youth Development activities, we mobilized nearly 1,010 volunteers to serve for over 3,080 hours.
